Notes for Nationality, Education, and Language Requirement for Eligibility

- In cases of unique family relationships or nationality-related circumstances (such as divorce, remarriage, unmarried status, death, disappearance, acquisition, or loss of Korean nationality), applicants must submit government-issued documents as proof. For example, divorce certificate, single-parent certificate, death certificate, disappearance certificate, acquisition/loss of Korean nationality certificate.
- Certifications such as GED for elementary, middle, and high school education, domestic or foreign equivalency exams, homeschooling, cyber learning, and adult education will not be recognized as fulfilling the educational requirement. (Cyber university education will not be recognized for transfer eligibility)
- Transfer to our university is possible from the third year onwards, but the recognized credits at our university will be determined based on the completed credits and courses at the previous university.
- TOPIK PBT (Paper Based Test) and IBT (Internet Based Test) have the same validity and grading system, so you can submit either a TOPIK PBT or TOPIK IBT score report to meet the language requirements.
- The scoring system for the TOEFL iBT will be revised effective January 21, 2026. Both the previous and revised scoring scales will be provided concurrently until January 2028.
- For the English track language requirement, submitting an official English proficiency test score is mandatory. However, applicants who hold nationality from a country where English is a native or official language should refer to the "Language Proficiency" section in the required documents for further details.
- Korean Government Scholarship(also known as GKS) recipients must adhere to the admission regulations of the National Institute for International Education.

05 EVALUATION METHOD

Document Screening
100%

- Applicants will be selected through a comprehensive evaluation based on their submitted documents, which include academic ability, aptitude related to the field of study, language proficiency, and both academic and extracurricular activities.
  ※ For the English Track Freshman Admission(Int'l Business Department), a document screening and an interview will be conducted. Only those who pass the document screening will be invited for an interview. (Applicants who fail the document screening will not be individually notified.)
  ※ Applicants who do not attend the interview will be considered disqualified.
  ※ Applicants must strictly adhere to the scheduled interview time and must bring their passport for identity verification.
- Matters regarding evaluation and deliberation will be determined by the Ajou University Admission Committee for international students, and other matters will adhere to the admission procedures and regulations of Ajou University.
- Admission results and evaluation details will not be disclosed.
- If an applicant is found to have applied to the university through fraudulent means or cooperated with such actions to disrupt fair student selection processes, their admission may be canceled, and they may face additional penalties.

Precautions Regarding Required Documents for Freshman and Transfer Admissions

- All documents submitted by the applicant will not be returned.
- All submitted documents should be in A4 size and must be submitted in the order listed in the document submission list.
- If any submitted document is not written in Korean or English, a translated and notarized original in Korean or English must be submitted.
- If the names on the submitted documents differ, official proof of identity (Certificate of Name Discrepancy) issued by the respective government must be attached.
- Prospective graduates (or those expecting completion) who are granted final admission must submit by post the original translated and notarized Certificate of Graduation (Completion) and final transcript, with Apostille or Consular Legalization, by Friday, January 22, 2027. Failure to submit these documents will result in the inability to issue the Standard Certificate of Admission and may lead to the cancellation of admission.

※ Documents from Apostille member countries must bear an Apostille, while documents from non-member countries must be verified through Consular Legalization at a Korean diplomatic mission abroad.

- [Korean Track Applicants only] Applicants who plan to submit proof of language proficiency must submit their language proficiency documents (original TOPIK scores or completion certificates and transcripts from language institutes) by Wednesday, December 23, 2026, 16:00 (KST) to receive final admission. Failure to submit within the deadline will result in cancellation of admission due to not meeting the eligibility criteria.
- [English Track Applicants only] Applicants must submit the original official English proficiency test score (TOEFL/IELTS/TEPS) by the given application deadline. However, applicants from countries where English is a native or official language (as designated by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs website) may be exempt from submitting a language test score at the time of application. Nevertheless, they must submit an official English proficiency test score before graduation to meet the graduation requirements.
- If there is a need to verify family relationships, the relevant documents must be submitted. (translated and notarized original)
  - Documents such as death certificates, divorce certificates, proof of custody and guardianship, and confirmation of the guardian's remarriage status.
- The Office of International Admissions may adjust the submitted documents based on the applicant's situation, and students who receive requests for additional documents must submit the supplementary documents within the requested deadline.
- Regardless of whether it is before or after admission, if falsification of submitted documents, eligibility discrepancies, proxy testing, or other fraudulent methods of passing admission are discovered, admission and enrollment will be canceled, and any tuition fees paid will not be refunded.
- Any matters not covered in these admission guidelines will be determined by the International Students Admission Committee of the university, and all subsequent matters after admission will be governed by the university regulations.

- Submission Guidelines for Final Academic Credentials for Applicants from Specialized Secondary, Vocational, Technical, or Industrial High Schools in China (Select option ① or ②)
  ① Option 1: Graduation (or Expected Graduation) Certificate issued by the local educational authority and the Certificate of School Information
  ② Option 2: Graduation (or Expected Graduation) Certificate issued directly by the school (verification by the Provincial Department of Education / Municipal Bureau of Education required) and the Certificate of School Information
  ※ Graduates must submit the original notarized English translation of their Graduation Certificate with an Apostille attached.
  ※ Prospective graduates who are granted final admission must submit by post the original translated and notarized Certificate of Graduation with Apostille or Consular Legalization within the final document submission deadline. Failure to submit will result in the inability to issue the Standard Certificate of Admission and may lead to the cancellation of admission.
  ※ The Certificate of School Information form can be downloaded from the online application site and the Ajou University International Student Admissions website.

- Guidelines for Submitting Bank Balance Certificate
  - Final admitted applicants must submit an original Bank Balance Certificate under their own name within the final document submission deadline.
  - For account balances as of the issuance date, a minimum of 20,000,000 KRW or above is required.
  - For graduates of the Korean language institute at Ajou University's International Education Center, a minimum balance of 10,000,000 KRW or above is required. However, submission of the following documents is mandatory: ① Original certificate of completion from the Korean language program, ② Complete semester transcripts, ③ Attendance certificate for all semesters

※ The certificate must be issued within 30 days prior to the application date for a visa or Certificate for Confirmation of Visa Issuance. Only certificates with a separately stated expiration date will be recognized up to that expiration date within a maximum limit of 6 months from the date of issuance.
